

Financial Mentoring Program

Britepaths offers free personal, one-on-one financial guidance to working clients, usually by a referral from a social worker or case manager. Clients are matched with a mentor who will work with them toward the goal of a healthier financial outlook. Clients must be working at least 30 hours per week.

For consideration into the program, the candidate must commit to:

- Attend a free Financial Counseling Clinic, prepared with your financial questions.
- Attend a free Thrifty Thursday class.
- Complete a phone application and interview in a timely manner.
- Participate in JUMP: a budget planning program. Track daily expenses for a minimum of two weeks with a Britepaths volunteer.
- Meet in person with their financial mentor two times each month for a period no less than six months.
- Communicate with the program manager in a timely fashion, usually by phone or email.

"[Britepaths] has turned my life around. I used to stress every month about my bills, which one to pay, which one will be late. Now, I can pay my bills on time (some ahead of time). My savings is small but it will grow. The best of all, my daughter doesn't just ask for something she needs; she asks me to add it to the budget. How sweet is that?"
---Pamela, Britepaths Mentored client

Are YOU ready to work with a financial mentor to make the changes you need in order to reach your financial goals?

If YES, contact Marcelle Miles, Program Manager, at mmiles@britepaths.org

With the support of the

