

Workforce Development

Britepaths and the Financial Empowerment Center workforce development team is here to help during COVID-19.

Let us help you refresh your resume, polish your interviewing skills, career strategize, and more, virtually!

Workforce Development:

Offers assistance with:

- Job and career identification and planning;
- Referrals to educational, job training, or professional certification programs, if needed;
- Resume review;
- Virtual mock interviews
- Participation in Network Up, when appropriate.

Network Up:

Dependent upon the availability of volunteer mentors, and technical capabilities of both volunteer mentors and mentees to conduct meetings virtually

A short-term mentoring program that matches a job seeker with a volunteer mentor. Together, you identify career goals, establish a job search strategy, and develop professional networking connections.

If you live in Alexandria, Burke, Lorton or Springfield, contact Sally Meyer.

For all other areas of Fairfax County, contact Jill Beres.
