

Did you know that 80%
of jobs are filled through networking?

Is It Time For You To Network Up?

Network Up is a short-term mentoring program that matches under- or un-employed men and women with a volunteer mentor. You will meet with your mentor 2 to 5 times over a two-month period virtually to help you create or expand your professional network; learn industry knowledge; and establish a career strategy and job search plan.

Developing a strong network is key to accessing the hidden job market. Relationship is everything!

Are You Ready to be a Network Up mentee? You Must Have:

- specific career goals and/or desired job sector identified
- a high school diploma or GED
- basic computer skills, reliable Internet access, and a professional-looking email address
- a professional demeanor and positive attitude

Network Up is NOT a job placement program. Rather, it is a workforce development opportunity.
